CLUB NEWS from our President

Dear Members,

September 2006.

Well it seems like ages since I wrote a newsletter but here we are well and truly on our way to the Festive Season.

Jocelyn, Charlie and I have travelled around Queensland a bit in July and enjoyed the warmer weather when it was freezing down here. My wife and sisters gave me a delayed sixtieth birthday party in Mt Isa in July and it was nice to catch up with some old friends and we also had the pleasure of a very dear friend, Lorna, who also made the journey up to the copper city.

We returned just in time for the A.C.M.C. Annual General Meeting and were sad to see some old committee members leave. We welcome new members and congratulate Rob Smith who has taken the Secretary position left vacant by Brian Sparks.

I was very pleased to see our Treasurer, Graham stay on for another term. Also congratulations on your Merit Award win.

Congratulations to our other winners in the Industry and Len Wakefield Memorial awards.

There has been a bit of bad luck (healthwise) within our committee with Lorraine, Evonne and I but I think we are on the mend. Good Luck to Lorraine with her chemo treatment which starts soon.

I am told that the July show with Wanneta's Country Plus was very good and August was pretty similar with Sandra Humphries and Crosswind.

Marie Robinson & Deep River was very good at our September show and Trish Wilson & Midnight Mountain Blue with our special guest artist Dwayne Elix will be our entertainers for our October show which will be on the second Sunday.

LORRAINE'S ROUND-UP

Aug 2006 Entertainment Report

Hi everyone,

Well here I am standing in for Lorraine this time. Gee, this last month I seem to have worn a lot of hats with people sick or leaving the committee, but I wouldn't do it if I didn't love the club and all of you people in it.

Good news! Lorraine's over her operation and on the mend. She's so bright and chirpy. Her positive attitude and lots of prayers from everyone has gotten her through, though she still has some treatment to go, I'm sure she'll be fine.

Well what a day we had for our August show. Our band was "Sandra & Crosswind" who always give us 100%. They are just brilliant. We were also treated to an extra in the band for the whole day with the fantastically talented Trev Warner who played the fiddle and sang for us. What a bonus! We also had the every popular "Chooka Williams" (who turned "60" on the 10th of August). He is a great entertainer and good for a stir. He's a good sport. We also had the talented Jodie Thomas who was our 1997 Len Wakefield memorial trophy winner (picture on page 7). It was a treat to see and hear her again. We were going to have Georgie Shortt, who won this year's Len Wakefield trophy, but she came down with the dreaded lurgy and was quite sick.

All in all it was an excellent day. God bless you all.

Keep it country. Di Smith (Vice pres)

Vice President's Report

Hi Everyone,

Here I am again standing in for our President, John Turner, who took crook at our last (August) show and had to go home. I believe he's on the mend now. Apparently it was that dreadful lurgy that's going around.

We started the day off with our A.G.M. which went off well. Our new secretary is Rob Smith who was also a past president and treasurer a while back. We also have a new face on the general committee. Her name is Laurel Forsyth. We very much welcome her and hope she enjoys working with us. But sadly we have to let one other valuable person go and that's Jean Parker. She has been with us for such a long time. I must also mention that her husband Roger has lent us a hand since retiring from the committee. We sincerely thank them both.

Congratulations go to our club patron, Trev Warner, for being voted in for the Industry Award. He so deserves this award. Also congratulations go to our treasurer Graham Silvy, for being our winner for the Merit Award. (much deserved.)

Bye for now. Di Smith (Vice Pres)

Sept 2006 Entertainment Report

Here we are September. Spring is here and I'm back at the club. They tell me the August show day was very good.

Sandra and Crosswind Band are always enjoyable and Chooka Williams put on his usual happy set of songs.

At the September show day Marie and Deep River Band started the day. Marie has a lovely voice I always enjoy her music.

Special guest for the day, Dave Prior, gave us a different look at Country Music, a few jokes and some of his own songs and of course a few of Merle Haggard's from his new CD (Silver Wings) which features Merle Haggard.

The Len Wakefield memorial Fund winner, Georgie Shortt showed us she has a future with Country Music, well done Georgie, hope to see you again in the New Year, all the way from Naracoorte.

Our president, John Turner, sang a couple of songs and the day finished with a Country Rock set of songs.

Thanks to all for their support during my illness. It's not over yet. A few months of chemotherapy and radio therapy are to come. Well I'll see how I go, hope to see everyone next month. Special guest for the day is Dwayne Elex with Midnight Mountain Blue Band. Don't forget October 8th the 2nd Sunday,

Bye for now, Lorraine

Jen and Dave Prior

On the 18th August I had the pleasure of receiving an invitation from the Square Dancing Club to open the S.A. meeting. It was quite an experience as I have never been that closely involved before but it was a very enjoyable night.

The Royal Adelaide Show has been a bit disappointing as it was not as good, in my opinion, as in previous years.

The Mildura C.M. Festival is almost on us as well so those travelling to Mildura travel safely and we'll see you on your return.

I have rambled on enough so I'll sign off until I see you again.

P.S. The Christmas Cards are already on the shelves.

John Turner

The Oct Show Tricia Wilson & Midnight Mountain Blue

Tricia Wilson has had a passion for singing country music since the age of 12 and began her professional singing career at the tender age of 15. In 1983 Tricia won the SA Great Country Music Awards and as a result, went to Tamworth to represent South Australia in the Australasian Country Music Titles. Tricia achieved a very creditable 'runner up' in the Best Female Vocalist competition.

Since this time Tricia has appeared throughout Australia and travelled extensively interstate. She has appeared with many well known country music identities such as Jimmy Little, Ted Egan, Reg Lindsay, Craig Giles, Felicity, The Beggs Brothers and Barry Thornton, her most exciting achievement was the opening act for the Rock Trio Cotton, Burns and Morris at Adelaide Festival Theatre in 2001.

In 1998 Tricia's most creditable recognition was being the featured artist on ABC Radio's Friday Night Live in Concert across Australia, In 2001 Tricia appeared on channel 7's AM Adelaide and with the overall response was asked back on several occasions.

Tricia has built up a considerable personal following, earning a reputation as the "Little Lady with the Big Voice", and once you hear her sing you will be left in no doubt as to why.

Midnight Mountain Blue have been playing together for 18 years and have appeared with Tricia throughout this period. The band has earned a reputation for outstanding musicianship and has won awards in its own right including "Best Band Award" at the 'SA Great' Country Music Festival.

The Oct Show Guest Artist Dwayne Elix

DWAYNE Elix has rapidly established himself as one of the next big stars on the Australian country music scene. And it is sheer talent that has seen him snare a swag of credits over recent years. But there was never any doubt that this multi-instrumentalist - vocalist - songwriter would succeed. His background and his determination, as well as his talent, guaranteed it.

Born on a farm in mid-north South Australia in 1965, Dwayne was introduced early to country music as his parents played guitar and sang songs of Tex Morton and the Carter Family. By the time he was 13, Dwayne - named after guitar legend Duane Eddy - was playing

Band at Barmera Hotel June 2006

Tricia and Midnight Mountain Blue have headlined many country music festivals throughout SA, NT and NSW. Their most recent achievement was being chosen to support Lee Kernaghan on his 'Australian Pass the hat around' tour.

With a variety of music spanning Country Classics, Country Rock and good old Rock and Roll, the band know they have a song for every taste in music.

In 2006 Trish Wilson was inducted into the South Australian Country Music Hall of Fame at Barmera.

Midnight Mountain Blue are: Barry Wilson - Drums, Bob List - Steel Guitar, Bob Charman - Bass Guitar and Vocals, Leon Hall - Vocals and Rhythm Guitar and Darrell Thompson - Lead Guitar guitar. But such was his music ability that he went to also learn mandolin, dobro, banjo, dulcimer, bass and lap steel.

Gifted with fine, appealing vocals, Dwayne began singing and playing at local concerts. This set him on his chosen career path - country music - and he set about broadening his musical horizons and extending his repertoire to include bluegrass, blues, rockabilly and sniffle.

Then the city beckoned and Dwayne moved to Adelaide. He concentrated on his music each night after work and to soon gaining the plaudits of the public and the industry alike for his singing, his song writing and his instrumental ability.

Keen to gain as much experience as possible, Dwayne formed his own band while at the same time working for others. His talent saw him chosen as the Adelaide support for Keith Glass and US artists Billy Joe Shaver and Steve Young.

In 1985 Dwayne continued his assault on the country music scene with credits to his name - 1985 Best Instrumental, South Australia Great Country Music Awards 1986 Best Songwriter runner-up, SA Country Music Awards 1987 Best Songwriter runner-up, SA Country Music Awards 1987 Best Instrumental runner-up, SA Great Country Music Awards 1987 Best Instrumental runner-up SA Country Music Awards 1987 Best Band Performance, SA Great Country Music Awards.

As he was racking up all these credits, Dwayne was continuing his development as a top all-round performer. His songwriting blossomed, his vocals and instrumentals were placing him in an enviable position with a big following and gaining him recognition as artist with a huge future. 1992 saw Dwayne, now based in Sydney, reach the finals of the prestigious Star Maker Quest.

A debut single, produced and released in collaboration with some of the top names in the industry - Heather Field, James Gillard, Ian Simpson, Keith Urban - came in 1994. The involvement of such people is testament to Dwayne's talent, and the high regard in which he is held by his peers.

The above was taken from a rather old document probably supplied by Dwayne, more recent news of his activities can be found at <http://www.countryragepage.com/Dwayne.htm> "Dwayne Elix & the Engineers"

Dwayne can be heard on an extensive list of CDs, hopefully he will bring some with him for us to purchase!

Your publicity officer has pictures of Dwayne appearing at the ACMC in 1999 and 2001.

The Nov Show Mallee Blue

"One of the most exciting and original Australian country bands to hit the scene in a long time is Mallee Blue from Murray Bridge". - S.A. Arts Council.

Mallee Blue was formed in 1996 bringing together the talents of Noel Kneebone, Darren Gurney, Brenton Ahrns, Anthony Hodgen and Neil Chapman in a combination that has won numerous awards throughout South Australia, including the Frank Harding Memorial Trophy for Excellence.

In 2005 Noel was inducted into the Rocky Page Hall of Fame at Barmera, he was also awarded the Industry Award by the Adelaide Country Music Club.

Proudly South Australian, this refreshing band specialises in Australian country and contains the song writing talents to present much of their own material, as well as delivering onstage antics that endear them to young and old alike.

Mallee Blue launched their debut CD, "Mallee Blue", in 1998 where it shot to the top of the SAMIA/SAFM South Australian Music charts, the first time ever a Country band has done so!

Mallee Blue is featured on the world released 1999 Compilation CD of South Australian talent.

The Nov Show guest Brendan Beleski

Brendan originally came from New Zealand. He worked and sang in Western Australia for a number of years, but has recently moved to Adelaide, SA. He also spent some time at the Gold Coast.

He is appearing at the Woolshed, Hindley Street, every Thursday(9.30 PM until late). Check the SACCM gig guide for other appearances. He also play regularly with Mallee Blue.

Brenton, Darren, Neil, Noel and Anthony at Murraylands Music Festival 2004

Mallee Blue received 5 nominations in the 1999 SAMI Awards, including "Most Outstanding CD release" and "Most Outstanding Band". This included all genres!

Mallee Blue is an excellent promotion of Australian Country Rock at its best.

This Original Australian Country Rock band is equally proficient, performing as a special guest in concert style, through to their 4 hour cabaret shows.

The band performs a large range of songs in Country, Contemporary Australian, Country Rock and Old/New Rock and Roll.

Biography

Moving from the gold fields of Kalgoorlie to Adelaide to further his musical career, Brendan has certainly made the most of the transition by recently winning the 2004 South Australian Country Song of the Year, with 'I'd love you still.'

His debut album 'A Country Singers Dream' written by Brendan, is a reflection of his Time spent in the sometimes hard place of the Western Australian goldfields and the Ups and Downs of everyday life. The album offers superb variation from the feel good Country Rock tune 'All The Right Bumps' to his award winning ballad 'I'd Love You Still'.

Over the years Brendan has played support to some of the big country names such as Don McLean, Lee Kernaghan, James Blundell, to name a few. As a kid growing up Brendan's influences range from a number of artists spanning from the more Traditional artists like Kenny Rogers, and Slim Dusty, to the more upbeat country Artists of today like Garth Brooks and Alan Jackson.

Extra Nov Guests:- Finely Tuned

The group's range of songs varies from jazz, gospel, classic, popular and blues. Finely Tuned consists of 9 vocalists and piano backing.

Finely Tuned provide outstanding harmonies bringing the audience along with them on a journey of music from the past to present arrangements.

Songs include:

Send in the clowns, Imagine, Operator, Save the bones for Henry Jones, Adiemus, Blackbird, Yesterday, Tuxedo Junction, All about the Blues, Nightingale Sang in Berkley Square, Georgia, Splish Splash, May it Be, Moonlighting, Oh Happy Day, Christmas favourites - Good News,

A finalist in the Toyota Star Maker at Tamworth Brendan enjoys performing a wide Range of covers ranging from Lee Kernaghan, Garth Brooks to the more pop/rock Style music of John Cougar and MatchBox 20.

"Country music is my life. I've been performing country music for half of my life and I want to do it for the rest of my life.....Hell I want to do it forever."

With a great selection of covers and originals accompanied by Brendan's strong Country vocals, Brendan has both the material and experience to perform to a variety of audiences for any occasion.

But above all it's Brendan's enthusiasm, energy and sheer enjoyment for the thing he loves doing that makes him a standout performer at any country event.

Coventry Carol, We 3 Kings, 25th Day of December.

Mallee Blue is well represented in Finely Tuned by Karen and Noel Kneebone and Chris Hodgen, wife of Anthony.

Len Wakefield Award

Late in July Di and I were privileged to judge the Len Wakefield Award Recipient. The competition was really good and the standard high. We awarded the prize to Georgie Shortt from Naracoorte, a talented 13 year old. We are hoping to have her at the club in the near future.

It was pleasing to see Kristal Collins take out the Junior Champion of Champions. The senior award was won by Vanessa Lee Shirley and well deserved.

It was disappointing that neither of last year's Junior or Senior Champion of Champions were able to perform at the Saturday night concert. It was really great to hear Alison Hams and the "Champs Band" doing all the backing work. The crowd was rather disappointing, so in next year, if you see this advertised, make an effort to attend.

Evonne

Barry Dalgarno

We reported the death of Barry in the last newsletter. For those who cannot recall Barry, his widow, Beth has provided this picture to help us.

Verle Siddall.

Sadly we lost the wife of Dennis Siddall. Verle passed away August 12th.

Dennis is the well know peddle steel player part of the Trev Warner Trio "Trev, Rick and Dennis).

A message from the Caterers

Unfortunately, due to increases in costs, we find that we need to put up the prices of our food that we provide for you.

This is just a small increase. We have not put our prices up for at least the last six years.

The new prices will be:-

Member's Letter

Maurice Clark recently wrote a letter to our President offering congratulations to John for his re-election and a couple of suggestions.

“Firstly a request for a member of each table to assist with the packing of chairs after each show, this would assist Club Committee members. This should be announced before the raffle as something new and for the above reasons.

Secondly that all rubbish is placed in the centre of the table, again for the orderly collection at the end of the day. Also that glasses and other items taken from the bar are returned by the individuals prior to the end of Club events.

These minor suggestions give an opportunity in a small way for members to assist their club.

All the very best and thank you for all you do.”

Thanks to Maurice for his suggestions. The help at the end of the September meeting was very much appreciated.

Thank you to Joy Champoin for donating the lovely Father's Day Cake (from Evonne)

Evonne, recover quickly from your hand surgery!

Laurel Forsyth

Laurel is our new committee member. She was asked to supply a few words about herself.

“After working at John Martins for 18 years in town, I transferred to Lockleys where I worked with the mechanics, ordering parts from manufacturers to replace broken parts.

I left John Martins and went to America with my daughter and her husband for 2 weeks.

My elder daughter and I opened a fingernail shop and had it for nearly 18 years until the rent went sky high!

I do craft (painting roll holders) every Wednesday and teach. I hope to do that until I get sick of teaching people!

We also go dancing four nights a week. I have received all my trophies for Ball Room dancing with my teacher.”

You are reminded that our shows are on licensed premises, and you are not permitted to BYO grog/softies/bottled water to the shows.

Please consider your own safety and the safety of others, and take appropriate care where-ever you are (and especially around the dance floor.)

Our bands and guest artists perform for our enjoyment. Please consider the rights and comfort of others and keep the noise down during performances

The club is run by volunteers who work hard to make our club one to be proud of.
Give them your support.
