CLUB NEWS from our President

Hi to everyone.

Wow we're into our third month already. It's only 10 months to Christmas that will be here in a flash. I don't know about everyone else, but I find that the older I get the faster the years go. (Am I missing something?) Our club is now 18 years old. We had our birthday last month. That time has just flown. We've come such a long way in 18 years. Happy Birthday to everyone.

Speaking of birthdays, you may remember that my daughter Tarlee needed a heart and double lung transplant. Well it's been a year already (8th Feb) and she's doing just fantastic. So she has celebrated her first birthday already (the transplants celebrate their birthday from the day of their operation). The support and love she has received from everyone has certainly helped in her recovery. I thank you all. She now helps out in the kitchen at the club.

We've got lots of exciting months coming up in entertainment. I am looking forward to it. A big thank you to everyone who helps us set up and especially clean up after our shows, we really appreciate your help.

Country Music brings us together.

LORRAINE'S ROUND-UP

Feb 2007 Entertainment Report

Here we are again and a lovely day was enjoyed by everyone. We celebrated our 18th years of showcasing South Australian and interstate artists in Country Music.

During the last 18 years many clubs and venues have started having country music, so we have lots of places to go to. We either choose one or two or go to them all, which would mean Saturday nights and Sunday afternoons would keep our diary full.

My family is always telling me there is more to life than country music. Once you get involved it's sure hard to walk away.

Our band for the month, Maryanne & Co., gave us a great afternoon of music.

Maryanne said it was about 6 years since we had her band, time sure runs away. We must make sure it's not 6 years again. Walkup for the day, Steve Liley always sings a great song. He has a very talented son, hope to see him one day as well.

Bye for now.

Mar 2007 Entertainment Report

The month of March is usually a busy month for Adelaide Food & Music Festivals and of course the Car Racing in the city. We were very fortunate to have a very good turn up of people to enjoy country music.

The ever popular Murray Mac and his band of merry men always entertain us. Don't forget the "South Australian Festival & Awards" (Barmera) June 1-11. Murray and wife Dot are the ones who do a lot of work with its organization.

I was very proud of our president Di Smith and new committee girl Helen Whelan, who hadn't performed for a long time, did a great job with their singing.

It was pleasing to have Kevin Merrett sing a couple of songs. He has been with the Club since its beginning, he also plays drums and Keyboard with only limited vision Kevin did well.

Then along came Chooka Williams. What does one say about him? He hails from Victoria, he had the dancers doing the real old style ballroom dancing – "very enjoyable". The previous Friday and Saturday nights he entertained on a boat trip down the Port River, so he had a busy weekend. Yours truly also sang a couple of songs. I was very nervous – first time singing since my illness, but I made it.

Well that's about all for now. See you all next time.

Happy 70th to Shirley Mitchell, she always greets me at the door with a friendly smile.

The March Show Peter Coad and the Coad Sisters.

Peter Coad is a Bush Poet, Balladeer and Songwriter of Australiana gathered from a life devoted to touring and performing to audiences throughout Australia.

Every year Peter Coad travels some 80,000 kms and performs in more than a hundred venues to very appreciative ears!!! When not touring, Peter keeps busy writing and recording new material for his live shows and albums. A finalist in 1998 at the Tamworth Golden Gumleaf Awards, category best album, with his Peter Coad presents "Bush Verse" CD. Also a finalist in two categories at Tamworth's writers Song writers Awards in 1994.

Originally from Hawker in the Flinders Ranges, in the north of South Australia, for the last ten years has resided at Bundanoon in the NSW Southern Highlands.

In 1990 Peter Coad was joined by his two sisters, Virginia and Lynette, and the show became Peter Coad and The Coad Sisters. The Coad Sisters, very fine musicians, playing guitars, fiddle, mandolin, harmonica, keyboards, drums, with very distinctive harmonies and clear strong vocals soon became well known, popular and successful in the club scene and their tour venues.

Virginia Coad was Star Maker Grand Finalist at Tamworth's search for a Star quest.

Virginia and Lynette are talented song writers as well.

The May Show - Bernie and the Bandits

Bernie and The Bandits have been playing their own unique style of County Music now for two decades.

Bernie "the Bandit" Scott was born and bred in a little town on the Fleurieu Peninsula called Yankalilla, where he first began drumming at the age of nine with his father in an old time dance band. He moved on to rock bands in the late 60's and 70's, then began playing solo with his Hammond organ, progressing on to bass guitar in his earlier Country bands, taking up lead guitar in the late 80's.

In recent years, Bernie has a fine ear for musical instruments, being able to play almost anything he picks up, including clarinet and saxophone.

Patsy Croucher became a "Bandit", initially playing acoustic guitar, progressing onto bass guitar, vocals and vocal harmonies in 1994. She is a talented, published songwriter. Bernie and Patsy double up as the popular duo "The Recliners"

David Cross is the "Bandits'" keyboard player. Although noted as a bass guitarist, his keyboard talents remained a bit of a secret until discovered. David is also a talented

Note the Calender phone number for Rob Smith is incorrect see page 2 for his correct number.

May special guest Glenn Skuthorpe

Glenn's musical journey transcends the country/folk/roots crossroads, creating a unique sound reminiscent of Springsteen and Steve Earle. With soulful lyricism and a street hardened eye Glenn is a vital and compelling storyteller with poetic lyrics full of love and loss, murder, betrayal and renewal. He gives voice to those whose stories must be heard.

'With heartfelt lyrics and melancholy Celtic air you can almost smell the acrid smoke from a hundred campfires and see the blood staining the wattle.' Cow Punk Quarterly

'Glenn's strong & weather beaten voice rings true. This man is a poet'. Dave Steel

'A style that is earthy, Australian & very much his own'. Yarn Up Magazine

'The title track a faultless example of his telling of disparate rural life. 'dB Magazine

Glenn Skuthorpe will be performing as part of The Dreaming - Australia's International Indigenous Festival in June 2007.

Rachelle Joan Coaby

On Feb 2 2007 a beautiful young woman named Rachelle Joan Coaby (nee Gollan) passed away suddenly. If her maiden name rings a bell, it's because her family were know in the country music scene, especially her dad, the late Alf Gollan & his band "Aces Wild". Alf and his wife Sue worked hard in bringing everyone of all colours and creeds together through country music.

They travelled all over Australia with their four children, Rachelle and her sister Rebecca (Beccy) followed in Alf's footsteps and took up country music. Rachelle won the encouragement award inn Port Pirie in 1991.

Sadly a few years ago Alf and Sue lost their eldest daughter Abigail (Abi) in a car accident.

Then a year later Alf passed away.

Rachelle was the youngest of Alf and Sue's four children. She had two beautiful children of her own, Shekira and Malachi.

Our deepest sympathies go to Sue and her family and Rachelle's husband Neil and their children.

Thanks to Bev Jones and Rael for their work at the Membership table at the Feb and Mar meetings! (but please remember that Jean and Roger Parker did it for years)

Nathaniel O'Brien and Australia's Got Talent

Nathaniel O'Brien (11) has now been to Melbourne for a new Channel 7 Television show "AUSTRALIA'S GOT TALENT", where he competed against other acts, before three judges (Danni Minogue, Red Simonds, and Tom Burlinson) and hosted by Grant Denyer. The show was aired on the 25th February, and he was given the thumbs up by the Judges, so will be travelling to Melbourne again, for the filming of the Semi Finals on the 17th of March. The show was viewed by 1.6 million people nationally, and Nathaniel sang Dianna Corcoran's song "A Little Bit Crazy" (shortened version, we had to cut it to 1:30mins), and played his guitar. Preparation is well under way for the next song. We have been told by the producers that they want him to continue playing his guitar, but would like him to sing something less country. (Country is not considered very popular) tell us something we don't know!

The journey for Nathaniel, has not been an easy one thus far, he has been teased and bullied, because of his singing, and had to change schools for some time, (21kms to the next town)and we have travelled to as many festivals and clubs, as well as travelling to audition in Adelaide for this competition, and also found time to perform at fundraising events. With the change of Principles, and time, he is now back at Burra school, and all is well so far, I keep my fingers crossed it stays that way for him. Nathaniel is a quiet achiever, learning to play guitar (bought with the help of money received from the "Len Wakefield Memorial Trophy"), but is also excelling in school, being top of his class in both maths and English. We entered into country for the friendly, relaxed atmosphere and have now been hooked by the style of singing. Anyone who knows Nathaniel knows he is a shy, quiet country boy, with an amazing voice.

His dream is to become a great ambassador for country music, not only for S.A., but as an encouragement to young boys from rural areas of Australia, and go to Camerata then one day to Nashville. Help Nathaniel, help Country music, and help get S.A. on the map by supporting Nathaniel. He will need support from the public to phone in for your favourite act, and is hoping to get support from all his family, friends, and everyone who knows him, both locally and afar so keep your eyes on Channel 7 (Sunday 8th April @ 6:30pm) Write down the phone / sms number, & VOTE.

Voting will close @ 5:00pm Sunday 15th April please don't forget to VOTE. DON'T FORGET S.A. is not as populated as the other states, so every vote will be needed.

THANK YOU ALL (in anticipation).

Nathaniel, Danny & Karen O'Brien.

Who says real men can't use pretty fans?

Please consider nominating for a committee position before our AGM in August

Who's dent is this?? (hint the licence plate contained the letters "LAW")

Jenny Engelhard

Jenny is our newest committee member. She has supplied the following.

Jenny is a recent widow (Oct 1996) after being married for 46 years.

They had four children, three of which are still living. They lost a daughter at the age of 35 to breast cancer.

Jenny worked for seventeen and a half years for SA Housing Trust as a caretaker come everything!

Jenny has eleven grand children and two great grandchildren.

Jenny enjoys several crafts such as ceramics, crocheting, turning calendars into boxes, quilling - turning paper scraps into flowers etc. (Quilling is the art of creating decorative designs from thin strips of curled paper. Using simple tools, long strips of paper are tightly wound and released to form complex shapes. Also called paper filigree, the art has been practiced since the Renaissance. From wikipedia).

Other interests include, football, ballroom dancing and of course Country Music and the Adelaide Club! She loves people, has a story to tell and will listen!

(Sorry the picture is so small, next issue will have a better one! Ian)

Behind the scenes of "Country Call"

Our newsletter, which over the years you have all received through the post, has had a lot of your committee putting in a lot of work.

When the newsletter was being printed by the club, we would meet at Lorraine's home to print and put together and get ready for posting. This included stapling, folding, sticking and putting labels on. Roger and Bryan usually did the printing (photo copying), with Lorraine, Jean, June, Di and Evonne doing the rest of the work. Jean and Roger put a lot of work into the newsletter when Roger was Publicity Officer. We as a club really appreciate this. A big "Thank You" from all the members.

We take this opportunity to thank Lorraine for having the "photocopier" residing at her home. She is always ready to make us welcome.

Our newsletter is now being "out-printed" and the work load is not quite as heavy. For a few months Jean and Roger folded all of these and Graham Silvy one month did it all by himself, a mammoth task. Thanks. Ian our current publicity officer is doing a great job with photos etc. I am sure you all appreciate this.

Graham, Ian Evonne, Russell & Rhonda, Merv and Lorna

have been meeting lately to fold, stick and label the newsletters.

Thanks to Graham and Lorna and Merv for making their homes available for this.

As you can see we all do our little bit to make this job a little easier for all.
