CLUB NEWS from our President

Hi Everyone,

Well it has been a very hectic and traumatic time for my family and myself since our October show. Five days after our October show I lost my dear Mum Margaret Kuno in a house fire. She was a staunch member of our club from the time it first started. She was also an entertainer for most of her life. She and I spent many a time having the best laughs at our rehearsals when we did our comedy acts together. Sadly she started to develop dementia which was taking away her famous sense of humour. I miss my Dear Mum so much as I know many of you (her friends) do as well. I would like to thank you all for the many cards, support, love, flowers and attendance at her funeral. She would have loved it all. It's times like these that remind you why you belong to such a great club with such a great lot of people (family) such as you.

On a brighter note our December show should be great. It will be kicked off with a Gospel show at 11.00, then on with our normal show with a bit of fun thrown in, all day backed by the great band 'The Sherrahs'.

Don't forget to dress in your Christmas gear, wear your Christmas smile and be in your Christmas mode then we'll all have a great time.

I'll close for now.

Thank God for Country,

Di Smith, President.

Margaret Kuno

LORRAINE'S ROUND-UP

Oct 2007 Entertainment Report

Here we are nearly the end of year 2007.

What a great day we had, Midnight Special, another band full of fun and cheers. We never know what's going to happen with Warren at the helm. Bubbles flying everywhere and prizes thanks to the band. Brendon Liley, our special guest, what a delightful young man he is. He never stopped smiling and joined in with everyone at the table where he sat celebrating a birthday cake, balloons going everywhere and Dad Steve looked pretty happy having his son Brendon perform and enjoy himself because Brendan still lives in New Zealand. Hope to get him back next year.

Emily Zanker also was a delightful young lady and also joined in with everyone to have a good time. She performed extremely well.

Thank you to all who made the day happy and bright.

Nov 2007 Entertainment Report

Here we go, Xmas is on its way. Once the pageant hits town, it is only a few weeks to Xmas. Hurrah! The band was very good putting up with the special floor show!

It was really good because it was showcasing what the committee get up to. I was real proud of everyone, especially the ones who didn't think they had anything to offer, such as Vice President Merv, Managing Director of A Building Company, held a stop work meeting had to get everyone to vote to get the show rolling. Treasurer Graham, marriage celebrant started to marry Bernie to his drummer, I soon stopped that! Russell, past worker of Holdens, had praise for the car. It won't be the same at Holdens now! What about our Publicity Flasher Ian? Wow, couldn't get him off the stage. What about our President, Di? She wooed them with her classy act. Then along came Evonne, apron and a tray of cakes to show what she can offer. Along came the singers of country music, Rob, Jenny, Josie, Helen, Rael and Lorraine.

Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves, especially the hugging bit with our Jenny. She always likes to give a hug and a kiss of friendship. It's great having some new faces on the committee.

We then had some walk-ups, Scott Warner from Murray Bridge, Steve Tripoli, the Italian Country singer, Elisa Parker the little 8 year old who sings all Slim Dusty songs. It was a pleasure to have Sarah Griffin along. She was the 2004 Len Wakefield awardee. It is pleasing to see the young ones at the club. People of any age are very welcome indeed.

I must say we missed Di's mother Margaret Kuno who passed away a week after our October show.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their support this year with me going through my highs and lows with breast cancer. Without you all and the sound of Country Music, it would have been very hard to handle.

Georgie, my little granddaughter is now seven and is continuing to improve. She is still unable to walk but eating and talking very well. She goes to school and enjoys it very much. Thanks again to everyone.

I've decided to have a break from Adelaide and am going to Sydney all of December and January and maybe February, so I wish you and all Happy Xmas and a bright happy New Year. I'll see you at the December show, because it's only the second day. I leave for Sydney on Tuesday.

Adelaide Country Music Club won the Best Country Music Club in Australia

Earlier in the year Merv Schapel, country music enthusiast and announcer at Victor Harbor's radio station Great Southern FM 90.1 nominated our club for the award. People may have noticed a newspaper printout from the "Manilla Community News" (Manilla is half hour north of Tamworth), about our club. Information was sent to Joe McManamon as well as some references from artists such as Peter Coad.

This on line Country Music "News" is regularly updated. (<http://www.manillacommunitynews.com/>).

Late October Merv Schapel contacted Lorraine Wakefield and suggested it would be in the Club's interest to attend the Australian Country Recording Awards 2007 to be held as part of the Tamworth on Parade Spectacular No 17 in Wagga Wagga Commercial Club on November 17th.

Initially Di Smith and Lorraine were going to go over by bus, arriving at 3 am in the morning. After further consideration Ian Fisk agreed to drive his campervan over with Lorraine as a passenger.

We left on Thursday, Nov 15th, spend one night in a caravan park in Hay and two in Wagga Wagga. Lorraine slept in the campervan, Ian in a small tent. We endured long hours on the road, hot weather and many many flies!

On Saturday evening, Nov 17th as part of the awards ceremony, our club shared the ACRA Country Music Club of The Year with Wagga Wagga and Boy Up Brook Clubs. (full results below). Our award plaque will be shown at our December meeting.

The evening also included entertainment from the following artists:- Ron Smythe, Noel Cotter and Sylvia Williams, Kath McCall, Pattie McKinnon, Stephen R Cheney, John Brand, Alan Neale, Frank Drinkwater, Alan Kash, Ten-13, Chalrey Boyter, Peter Pratt, Laura Downing, Rob Breese and Reg Pool. It was a superb evening of entertainment.

We returned to Adelaide on Sunday Nov 18th.

Thank you Merv for nominating our club!
