President's Report

Hi Everyone,

Well the silly season has arrived. Christmas is upon us and out goes all your money. We are looking forward to our Christmas show featuring the top band Peter Coad and the Coad Sisters plus Jim Hermel and Margaret Coad.

Don't forget to wear your Christmas gear and even bring along decorations for your table if you wish. It always makes the day even brighter and more fun if you get into the spirit of the season.

Also don't forget that Evonne is making up Christmas baskets to raffle for funds for the Len Wakefield Memorial which enables us to give encouragement to a well deserving young recipient by way of a trophy and a sum of money towards their music, be it via music lessons or musical instruments or to enter a big festival section through our sponsorship. For more information about the Len Wakefield Memorial, just ask Lorraine or myself. Remember if we don't encourage our young to keep up the country music here in Australia then we could lose it.

I wish you all a safe and peaceful Christmas and the same for your New Year and God Bless you all.

Di Smith (pres)

Don't forget the real reason for Christmas.

LORRAINE'S ROUND-UP - October

Lorraine with yet another cow!

Thanks to all who came out to our second Sunday of the month show in October. We will go back to our first Sunday next year even if it is on the long weekend.

Those that didn't come missed out on a new band on the scene, Top Dead Centre. They were terrific, a little more than Country, but with there being three vocals and great harmonies, sounded good. They come from the Barossa Valley area. David Gebert was in the ever popular Country Bumpkin Band. We oldies of the club had fond memories of the days with Helen Downer who lately isn't very well. Who wouldn't mention Greg 'Short Wheelbase' Smallwood, he is a real dynamo on drums, great guitar work and vocals by Steve Gregory, nice Johnny Cash songs and the beauty in the band, Victoria Van Bertouch, vocals and keyboard.

David Gebert

There may be a few who say that Top Dead Centre was not strictly Country, but with all the young ones on the scene we have to get used to it.

On the day there were more dancers on the floor when it got rockabilly. The band also played lots of songs not usually heard at our club. I say, I and a lot of others enjoyed them, as I've said before let's be a club of happiness and enjoyment of music. (see 'What Defines Country?' by Raelz on page 8)

LORRAINE'S ROUND-UP - November

Here we are nearly another year has passed.

The hot hot weather has arrived so on with the fans and coolers.

Band of the month, The Creole cowboyZ as usual gave us some great unusual Country Music. They enjoy what they do and it comes out in their presentation, there are guitars, washboards, Didgeridoo, drums and violin just to name a few. They all have a go at vocals.

They also put on a Cajun dance for everyone to have a try at doing. The line dancers seem to pick the style up easily. Well done to all who tried it.

Well that is all about November, on to Xmas show day with Peter Coad and Sisters. It should be a happy day, we might even have Father Xmas along to get into the spirit all please wear a Xmas T-Shirt or hat. I wish everyone a happy Xmas and a bright New Year.

Next year in February we will be celebrating our 21st year. Thanks to everyone for their support over the years for just coming along and for helping out, to the Artists and Bands, thank you for making my job easy. Country Music is one big family. Let's continue into the years ahead.

Lorraine

Because your Publicity Officer was at the Port Pirie Festival in November and no one sent him any photos there are none of the November show in this issue!

January Show - Kindred Spirit

Kindred Spirit the Band attracts crowds wherever they play.

The boys have performed in Australia, New Zealand and the U.K.

The talented line up consists of:-

George (lead guitar)

Les (bass player)

Martin (percussion .... ah well, drums then!)

Steve (vocals, harmonies and rhythm guitar)

Raelz (vocals, harmonies and guitar).

Primarily a 'country band'... Kindred Spirit loves to show its versatility. Our repertoire includes country, rock 'n' roll and a wide selection of popular favourites... providing something for everyone.

A fabulous group of loyal followers make each Kindred Spirit event a fun occasion.

You'll know who they are – they're the rowdy ones! Ha, ha, ha. Yes, entertainers need an audience and the band is truly appreciative of their enthusiastic supporters.

We are putting on our own event New Year's Eve. This will be held at the Munno Para Bowling Club, Curtis Road, Munno Para. If you're undecided where to celebrate, and are looking for something different – why not share this night with us? Members of the band would be happy to give further information.

On Sunday January 3rd you'll find Kindred Spirit at the Adelaide Country Music Club.

Dust off your dancing shoes, bring your friends, sing along and settle in for an enjoyable day.

Kindred Spirit looks forward to catching up with you all!

October and November were very busy months for your Publicity Officer

Many Festivals were attended including the Semaphore Music Festival, Fleurieu Folk Festival, Port Pirie Music Festival, Murraylands Music Festival and Harrietville Bluegrass Convention! Many hundreds of photos were taken. There are links to some of them on my website (www.ianfisk.org). Also Steve Foster was at the Port Adelaide Maritime Museum and Bluegrass Junction at the Folk Centre. Tracy Coster also toured SA.

Though all were not Country Music events, much Country Music was at all of them. Some of the highlights included Amber Joy Poulton and band, the Creole cowboyZ, Bridgland Brothers Bluegrass (at several of the above events) and The Cowtippers. At the Harrietville Bluegrass Conventions, as well as great SA and interstate groups there were a number of overseas groups from Tasmania, New Zealand, Canada and the US.

In Port Pirie the talent search results included in the over 15 years old section 1st Earnest Schulz, 2nd Jasmine Reschke and 3rd David Morrissey.

Perhaps in 2010 some of the above will perform at our Club?

In 2010 there are many more Country Music Festivals to attend, including Tamworth in January, Lake Charlegrark Country Music Marathon, Festival of Country Music at Mt. Gambier, Cowell Country Music & Ute Muster, Lameroo Country Music Festival, Country Music for Cancer in Kapunda and of course Barmera. That is just for the first half of 2010! More details in later issues of Country Call, or check the South Australian Council for Country Music Gig guide. (www.saccm.com)

Some the Many Things Russell Byrne Does

The start of my day begins for the Adelaide Country Music Club day at 9am by switching on the lights and the air-conditioner.

Then I open the cupboards, set up tables and chairs (with help from others), get the urns out and set up with water. In between I help Evonne bring in the kitchen a trolley of cakes and food for sandwiches. These chores continue all throughout the day then at the end of the day, we clean up (with assistance from others) putting everything back in the cupboards. Other duties as vice president include assisting the president and secretary. That includes regularly picking up the mail from the mail box.

As I am a jack of all trades, I also do maintenance on the broken cupboard locks and make new cash register drawers. If it's broken I will I fix it.

I also have enjoyed making new signs for the tea and coffee, band table and birthday tables also the disabled table. Thank God for Country Music.

Yours faithfully, Russell Byrne.

Ron and Elise McCulloch had their 49th wedding anniversary in November.

Sadly Keith Mitton passed away early October, condolences to his family.

Sick List.

Gary Trenerry is on the mend.

Rob Smith is struggling with his health challenges, he recently described his health as s**t house.

Robin Clack from Port Augusta has also been reported to being not well.

Jeffrey Buck is facing a new health challenge.

Best wishes to all for a speedy recovery

Sadly young Eliza Parker's grandmother Dulcie Fay Parker passed away early November. Eliza and Daryl were rarely not accompanied by Fay at our Club..

Chicken Balls (who says there is no such thing?)

For the November Adelaide Committee Meeting I made a plate of nibbles of Chicken Balls with cubes of fruit cheese for Russell to take. The Committee Members asked for my delicious Recipe for the Chicken Balls.

HERE IT IS:- -Go to Fresh and Easy Chicken or Leonards and buy their Chicken Patties. Bring them home and part them to size and roll them into small balls, add a small amount of oil in a fry pan, cook at low to medium heat turning over until an even light golden colour.

Love Rhonda

Thanks to Raelz and Pam Fisk for proof reading Country Call and to Russell and Rhonda for help in folding, taping and posting it. Evonne Rayson assisted with the October/November Issue.

What Defines Country?

I'm talking musically here folks. It is great to discuss one's perceptions with another soul. Over the years there have been observations made that certain bands don't play 'Country'. Well, sometimes those entertainers might be 'border-line' in their style. I remember clearly a dear friend, (Club member now deceased), stating to me many years ago that if it wasn't Australian Country then it wasn't country at all. That was his preferred music and he was entitled to that opinion, although we did have some heated discussions on that fact. American or Alternative Country did not really rate according to him. We did agree to disagree of course!

Although I've heard comments regarding other performers over the years, recently at our Club some discussions arose. It seemed that patrons either really loved the 'Band of the Day' or just tolerated or maybe weren't particularly interested. Well, if we all loved the same groups/music/style then there would not be such variety to choose from. Pretty fortunate we can all do this I think.

What surprised me was that some persons made the claim on the day that the music wasn't 'country'.

Interestingly enough I was jotting down the songs they did. Why? Well, it's hard to remember what was played when trying to recall later and anyway, I was curious as to whether they included any/many of the pieces that my own band's repertoire does. I guess it's irrelevant but we actually have about seven pieces in our own sets. Everything else presented was different. Yay! Oh, and to clear up one thing said, which was really a strong one, that they didn't do 'country', I would ask, are the following recognisable country artists? Alan Jackson, Eddie Rabbitt, Patsy Cline, Merle Haggard, Steve Earle, Slim Dusty, James Raine, Jimmy Buffet, Jerry Reed, Dwight Yoakum, Johnny Cash, Charlie Daniel's Band, Janis Joplin? Of course they are! These are just some of the artists whose hits that band entertained us with.

A few mentioned that some of the stuff wasn't suitable for dancing. Everyone has their style and choose appropriate songs to kick up their heels. You either want to give it a go or not! The line dancers put on a good show I thought.

Well, I guess that for an afternoon once a month and for the enjoyment of such diversity, we perhaps could just show support anyway. If really disinterested in the entertainment on any given day, there must be alternative things one can do!

The Committee is aware that not everyone will be satisfied with everything. Believe me it is really hard to get 100% satisfaction but we each do our bit, (all voluntarily too!), and really strive to make a success of each event. There are extra meetings for us, running around at our own expense, physical input and lots of organisation behind the scenes – this each and every month. Finally getting to work for everyone's benefit on Club days as well! We take pride in achieving our goals though and do get to have fun as well.

It is fine to make general comments to Committee Members, (please make sure they ARE currently on committee though!), yet be reminded there is a special Box in the foyer of the venue for your ideas. We would be delighted to know your thoughts! Why tell everyone else? Tell us! Feedback, especially of the positive kind, is really appreciated. Members and visitors alike are encouraged to avail themselves of this facility.

It is your Club, my Club, our Club and we are here to proudly promote the continuance of Country Music on all levels. Positivity is so uplifting - don't you think?

I appreciate you reading my contribution ... I trust I have explained some things and possibly given food for thought. Thank you!

The Maverick Tie

Several years ago there was a real gentleman in country music by the name of Merv Rayson (husband of Evonne Rayson from the ACMC ). Merv always dressed immaculately when performing, often wearing a Maverick Tie. He had a lot of time for people and struck up a friendship with Dennis Verran.

After Merv sadly passed away, Evonne gave Dennis, Marv's black Maverick Tie which he treasures very much and has worn on very special occasions. Ian had always wanted one, so with Bev's help I managed to 'borrow' it and have made him several in different colours using the original as a pattern.
