President's Report

How ya goin' Friends?

Well the Annual General Meeting has come and gone, we have a new Vice President, Rob Smith and also we have two new committee members who are Rhonda Byrne and Vyvyan Buck. For our casual vacancy position we have decided to give it to Ron Crispin.

I also would like to thank Evonne Rayson for her support for being the Vice President when nobody wanted that position at that time, many thanks to Tarlee Schultz and Di Smith for their support over the past years, these members will be missed.

On our A.G.M. show we awarded the Industry award for 2012 to Jay J Shannon for the outstanding work that he has performed over the past years, he was delighted.

It was great to see our patron Trev Warner attending our A.G.M. Well, moving on to our September show with Peter Coad and the Coad sisters plus Jim Hermel. Our man on wheels WOMBAT who did some poetry it was outstanding.

Our next show in October will be Urban Sound plus Trev Warner and Kevin Merritt to sing.

It will be a busy day, many thanks to our committee, our ladies in the kitchen and our membership girls plus all those volunteers who come in early and stay back late, thanks to the Slovenian people behind the bar and for their donations.

Well there's no more to say so cheerio for now.

Keep It Country

Your President, Russell Byrne.

LORRAINE'S ROUND-UP - August 2012

Our day started with our Annual General Meeting. Elected by ballot were our vice president, Rob Smith and committee members, Bev Jones, Vyv Buck and Rhonda Byrne, elected unopposed were Treasurer Merv Jackson and Entertainment Officer Lorraine Wakefield. With Rob Smith going from the general committee to Vice President there was a casual committee vacancy. The Merritt award was awarded to Warren and Marry Myers. Life Membership was awarded to Mary and Warren Myers, Tarlee Schultz and Merv. Jackson. The Industry award was presented to Jay J Shannon for his years in Country Music, his help to artists and his charity work.

Our band for the day was Jay J Shannon and Winchester. It was good to welcome the band back to the Club, we haven't had them for a while. They provided a great sound, lots of songs we haven't heard for a while.

Ian List did a very good set of songs. He now has a CD. Trevor Philbey was along to accompany Ian. Trevor also has a CD.

Our very own Raelz once again was very good with her set of songs.

Our Patron Trev Warner was in the audience. He will perform at our October day.

It has been a year of lots of people on the sick list and a few people passing on. Our thoughts go out to everyone. Di Smith and daughter Tarlee Schultz withdrew their nominations for committee because of Tarlee's illness. We will miss their help at the Club.

LORRAINE'S ROUND-UP - September 2012

Well here we are heading for Xmas there are only three months to go, October, November and December.

Sorry I had to mention it to get everyone ready!

Our September show featured Peter Coad and the Coad sisters. They always give a great range of songs, great playing of instruments and of course yodelling. Harmony Bush Ballads, Wow!

Then along came Jim Hermel, his brackets with the girls, bluegrass sound was a little bit loud. I always admire Jim for telling everyone from the stage, yes I'm loud, but that's me!

Having the sound system on the floor makes it loud, but that's the set up they went with. The dance floor was always full and even though it's loud, you can still enjoy this group.

When a group you know is loud, don't sit close to the stage or you can also go for a little walk or just get up and dance. Every group deserves a show day.

Bands that play for teen agers are 6 times louder, the young ones love it. As we get older we like it quieter! Anyway it still was a great day.

It was wonderful to have Wombat do his monologues, the Deck of Cards and the Teddy Bear. He will perform again in January 2013.

Bye for now.

What's the best thing to play on a banjo?
 A flame-thrower.

What's the difference between a banjo and a onion?
 No one cries when you cut up a banjo.

October Show:- Urban Sound

Urban Sound last appeared at our club in November 2011. They shared the show day with Don Costa. They are a two member group, Pete Kelly on bass and and Walter Michaels on guitar, both sing.

October Show:- Guest Artists Trev Warner and Kevin Merritt

Trev Warner is the Club's patron. He has been at the Club many times in the past. Words have been in past Country Calls.

He has a MySpace page here <http://www.myspace.com/trevwarner>

There is also some info and photos here: -

<http://www.countryragepage.com/trevwarner.htm> this page is not longer updated.

Recently Trev has been playing in Carole Sturtzel's Wild Oats band. Also he has been playing a de Gruchy Dobro guitar as well as his fiddle.

If you want to hear him for several weeks, go on the Bluegrass Cruise February 19 to March 9 (Sydney to Perth via New Zealand!).

Trev has supported many of the Australian big names in Country Music as well as touring with Willie Nelson and The Bellamy Brothers. He has won two Golden Guitars in Tamworth (1979 and 2004).

November Show The Blackhats

Above: Dave and Rocky, Denis and Jim

In February of last year The Blackhats backed Craig Giles at our Club. There are some details of the band in the February – March 2011 Country Call (Vol 22.1). Please refer to that issue for information on the band. (If you can't find your Country Call, remember there is a version on our website!)

They have been very busy since that time, playing at most of the SA country music clubs as well as Mt

Gambier, Barmera Festivals, Lake Charlegrark and the Laura Country Music Festival. The band is composed of Dave Verrall, Peter 'Rocky' Datson, Denis 'Ned' Gore and Jim Roberts. (please note this is Denis with one 'n'). They have quite a following, expect to see many of them wearing 'Black Hats'!

Kevin Merritt (right) is a young VIP (Visually Impaired Person), he has done many walk-ups at the club during the years, singing and playing the guitar. I have also seen him on the drums. It has been a while since he has done a walk-up, go for it Kevin!

Gordon Weston has recently spent some time in hospital, but is coming good now!

Best wishes to the above and all others not well.

Why are all those banjo jokes so darned simple? That's so bass players can understand them too...

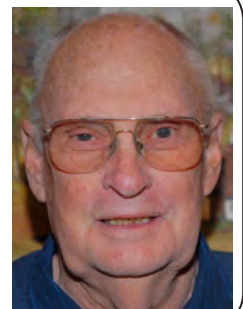

What's the best or fastest way to tune a banjo? With wirecutters.

Marjorie and Hartley Green will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary soon! Congratulations!

Ian Jones

Ian had been a member of the Club for a number of years. Sadly he recently passed away. Several members of our Club attended the funeral. Condolences to the family.

Welcome to our new Club Members

November Guest Angela Easson

From www.angelaeasson.com

Angela Easson is an accomplished performer dedicated to reaching her highest potential in the country music industry.

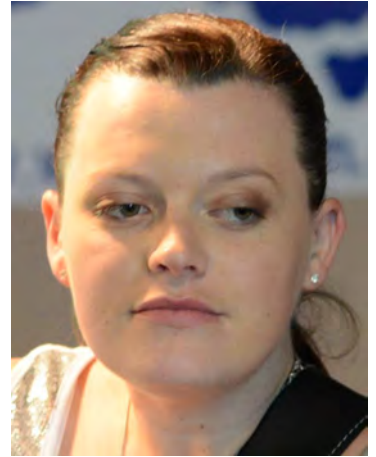

A 2011 Toyota Star Maker finalist, she has also been crowned the international winner of the 2010 Trans Tasman Entertainer of the Year award on Norfolk Island. She is a 2010 graduate of the CMAA Country Music Academy and winner of the 2009 South Australian Senior Champion of Champions.

Angela began singing at the age of 10 when she fell in love with country music after attending her first country music event in Mount Gambier. She moved to Adelaide in 1997 to further her music career.

Throughout her career, Angela has worked with many South Australian musicians, branching into different genres including pop, jazz and blues. She is also an active member in the community, including the lead vocalist for the Onkaparinga Big Band.

Her songwriting talents were recognised in 2010 after winning the South Australian APRA Modern Country Song of The Year and being awarded the South Australian APRA Overall Country Song of The Year with her song 'Forget to Forget You'.

She released her debut EP in July 2011 and is set to release her first single later this year. She is certainly on the right track to becoming a highly accomplished singer/songwriter in the Australian country music industry.

McAlister Kemp at Norwood Live supported by Chelsea Basham October 12

Crissina of Norwood Live is generously sending us a complimentary double pass to our Club to use on the night. We could offer the pass as in a special raffle prize at our October 7th meeting? She has also said they "would extend the 1 x Free Beer, Wine, or soft drink voucher (1 voucher per person) to anyone that books and says that they saw it at your venue".

People will have to book for the Dinner & Show as that is unavailable to book in on the night. ($63 per person), and $28 per person booked over the phone for show only, at the door (if tickets available) $30 per person.

Ring the Norwood Hotel on 8431 1822. Address 97 The Parade, Norwood

How can you tell the difference between all the banjo songs? By their names...

What is the definition of perfect pitch? Throwing a banjo into a toilet without hitting the seat.

What do you call a good musician at a banjo contest? A visitor.

Why are banjos better than guitars?

They burn longer.

More photos of most of our club meetings are on our website www.acmc.org.au. Past Country Calls (mostly in colour) from 2006 are also there.

Please save the club having to print, fold and post your Country Call by downloading your COLOUR copy from our website. Please send an email to info@acmc.org.au and ask to be taken off the mailing list. You will be sent an email advising when the next issue is available to download.

Paige Renee Court winner of the Adelaide Telstra Road to Discovery Heat

10 September 2012: Paige Renee Court, 18, from Port Pirie has won the chance to have her music heard on a national stage and rub shoulders with key music industry contacts after winning the Adelaide heat of the Telstra Road to Discovery music development program, celebrating 10 years supporting emerging Australian musicians in 2012.

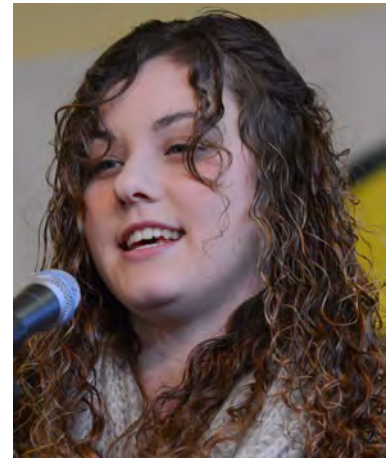

Paige Renee impressed the judges at Adelaide University on Friday September 7, with her compelling sound, appealing stage presence and charismatic performance, putting her own personal stamp on this year's competition.

Taking to the stage, Paige Renee performed two cover tracks, the first 'Hey Stephen' by Taylor Swift chosen as it was the first song she ever learnt on guitar, and followed with her second track 'Dream' by Pricilla Ahn chosen for its beautifully written lyrics, to take out the heat winner title.
