LORRAINE'S ROUND-UP - February 2013

Lorraine with Taylor Pfeiffer

Here we are again, two great show days. Our birthday in February had Heartland Band, always very popular and interstate artists. I really appreciated their excellent backing Our guest Craig Giles, wow. I like to call him Mr Entertainment, he appeals to all ages, he works the audience very well indeed.

It was pleasing to have Krystal Collins doing her enjoyable bracket of songs and her duets with Craig.

Then along came the talented Taylor Pfeiffer. To me she is the best talent I've ever seen, plays several instruments, sings and yodels at just 13 years old.

A great day for everyone, our big one will be next year, our 25th birthday. Thanks to Joy Champion for our cake that was cut by birthday girl Beryl, who has passed the 80 mark.

Hope everyone who had a birthday in February (it included me) had a happy time.

LORRAINE'S ROUND-UP - March 2013

Our March day was part of the Adelaide Fringe. Welcome to the new people who came along.

Once again a very happy day, but what with the festival on and the car race, numbers were slightly down.

I guess we can't change the festival or car race or our day, we just carry on. Thanks to the ones who support our club. We had four committee members away, thanks to all who helped out.

The band Bernie and the Bandits once again a very popular band. Artists love them, our special guest Dwayne Elix from Sydney was very impressed.

Dwayne did three different song sets with three different outfits. He must be the best dressed country singer in Australia, bright yellow, blue and white, the real Hank Williams style.

Our line dancers gave a great exhibition of line dancing and had people joining in. It was very good, even our Raelz got involved, walking stick and all. Thanks everyone.

To our ballroom dancers, please take care when dancing near the line dancers that you don't knock into them.

Thank you Dwayne for singing 'Sadie the Cleaning Lady'. We had the cleaning lady coming in starting to clean the stage and anyone near it. They tell me her name is Rhonda. It was funny she went out of the hall with a wave of her mop!

April Show:- The Hoffmans

Please check our April/May 2012 Country Call for a profile on The Hoffman Duo. They have appeared in many locations in South Australia in the past few years. I last saw them at the Lake Charlegrark Country Music Marathon in February this year.

April Show:- guest artist Trevor Philbey

Please check the 2012 February/March Country Call for a profile on Trevor. He has been busy in the last year appearing at many clubs and events.

TURN CLOCKS BACK ONE HOUR

South Australia's daylight saving period for 2012/13 will end at 3am on Sunday, 7 April 2013.

If members have not renewed their membership, this will be their last Country Call.

May Show:- The Blackhats plus guest Trev Warner

There have been profiles of both The Blackhats and Trev Warner in many past Country Calls. Please look the hard copies up, or do a search for them on our website!

Dave Verrall, Jim Roberts, Rocky Datsun and Denis Gore are pictured above at the Southern Country Music Club on March 10. Thanks to Darrell Reed for having them pose! Trev Warner was photographed at Guthries on March 5 (a special concert for the John Howie/Travelrite Bluegrass Cruise when the Voyager of the Seas visited Outer Harbour)

Deepest Sympathy to Di Smith and family on the loss of daughter Tarlee Schultz at the age of 33. She was a well adjusted member of our club, helping monthly especially in the kitchen. She will be sadly missed by all. Lorraine

Shirley Mitchel sent a letter to the Club. 'A Country Music Tribute to a the beautiful Coluntry Music Angel in Tarlee Schultz'. 'Her dedication to family and friends and country music has been an inspiration to a lot of young and old people.' Thank you Shirley.

Right:- Club Member in 2011, Edward (Ted) Drechsler and his wife Heather were on the same ship as Ian Fisk on a cruise between Sydney and Fremantle via New Zealand and Tasmania!
