President's Report -

Hello again to all our members and friends. The end of 2017 is fast approaching and so I want to wish all members and their families a Merry Christmas and hope you all have good health and lots of happiness during 2018. This year seems to have gone at a rapid pace. My younger brother Nick passed away 12 months ago last Wednesday, 13th December and it seems as if it was only yesterday. There are not a lot of venues about that are having a country music New Year's Eve this year and so I might just stay home or go to Semaphore foreshore with my daughter and a couple of other friends to see the fireworks etc.

Our club rounded off the year with Alan Webster and the Country Gentlemen on December 3rd. It was a great show enjoyed by all. A Good attendance too. There were two walk-ups, a young couple from Pt. Augusta who sang individually and did a good set each. Santa made an appearance and was well received by a lot of ladies who sat on his knee for a photo shot. Those photos will be available at the January show free of charge. In November we had Palomino Deluxe with Guest artist Derani. Fantastic entertainment all day.

On the down side, everybody's friend Wally Sparrow passed away mid November. Wally has been known for many years as a performing artist, talent quest judge, compere, radio presenter and journalist. He presented his last show, Country Breaky, on 101.5fm two days prior to his passing. He had a full house funeral at Centennial Park on Tuesday 5th Dec. Dennis Verran, another past member of our club, passed away a week after Wally and was laid to rest on Dec. 6th. Elsie Heness who was a regular for many years passed away in a nursing home on 11th November. A beautiful lady. Jack Callis is on the sick list and having a stay in hospital. Get well soon Jack.

As we go into 2018, members are advised that our financial year ends on the 28th February 2018. That means that renewal of subscriptions begin in March. Note that renewals can be done any time in the new year prior to the expiry date if desired.

Another reminder for members and friends that our club show on April 1st 2018 has been cancelled due to the Slovenian club being closed over the Easter holidays.

Our January 7th show will feature the band CITY COWBOYS. Tania Cornish was to be our Guest artist on that day but has cancelled out and taking 12 months off, and so we will be have a selected group of walkups in lieu of a guest artist.

Enough for now. Keep it country.

January Show walkups:- John Battle, Raelz, Steve Tripodi and Paul Walker

John Battle

John will be in South Australia in January 2018 and one of our January 7th Club day walk-ups. I have seen, heard and taken photos of John Battle in Tamworth 2011, Barmera 2012 and at Alcheringa in 2015.

He enjoys Singing/playing a good Aussie Bush Ballad is what I enjoy most of all but also do the songs of Merle Haggard, Don Williams, Charley Pride, Johnny Cash, Alan Jackson, Dwight Yoakam, Marty Robbins, Don Gibson, George Jones, John Denver, Willie Nelson etc.

John was a founding member (with Mel Sommers) of Steel City Country Music Club where he met his wife Kay. He joined Country Feelin's Band where he stayed for around four years playing the Hunter, Mid North Coast and Central Coast areas. He gave music away for about eighteen years, again only singing at parties and sometimes at local CMC shows.

Through the years he has won many awards. He has four CDs.

These words were partly abstracted from a profile John recently emailed to me.

Raelz

Raelz has been on the ACMC committee as Membership Officer since 2007. She was made a life member in 2016.

She has sung and played in a number of country bands throughout the years, including Kindred Spirit, Al's Pals and currently in Sidetracked (since 2017).

She has entered many talent quests through the years and won a few. She has also entered a number of Karaoke contests and won some of those too.

Raelz loves to encourage other artists, young and old!

There have been trophies won in karaoke competitions and many years ago, saw her regularly appearing at an Adelaide nightclub.

More photos of most of our club meetings (from 2008) are on our website www.acmc.org.au. Past Country Calls (mostly in colour) are also there. There are also many photos by Robert Chapman on line (link on our website). Check our facebook page too!

Please save the Club having to print, fold and post your Country Call by downloading your COLOUR copy from our website. It is usually on the website a week before most members receive their posted version! Please send an email to publicity@acmc.org.au and ask to be taken off the mailing list. You will be sent an email advising when the next issue is available to download.

Steve Tripodi

Steve has done many walkups at our Club through the years and done many at lots of country music gigs through the years. He is a regular at 'Billy Dee & Friends with Guest Walk Ups - 'Come as a Guest - Leave as a Friend' gig on the third Sunday every month.

Lately he has also been a regular at the 'ThreeD Hillbilly Hoot' (8 to 9 every Monday night) at the Linde Reserve, Nelson Street Stepney.

Several years ago he won the karaoke competition at the SA Country Music Festival in the Riverland.

I rang for more information.

He said:- "He was a nice bloke, sang in the 'Black Diamond 5 Band' for 18 years (1960 to 1978), sang in various nightclubs in Adelaide. He has one CD and is working on another"

Paul Walker

Paul was first seen by your Publicity officer at the Gawler Country Music Club Talent Quest in August 2013.

Cruisin Country No.7 – Family Reunion

How the year has flown. I recently went on the country music cruise which started from Sydney this year on the 'Radiance of the Seas' and I took along my 17 yr old grandson who is not into country music but he came along to experience a cruise and of course enjoy the food and other things on board ship and the shore visits.

We flew to Sydney Airport and then took the train to Circular Quay and then walked to the 'Overseas Passenger Terminal' and booked in our large luggage. We then went for a stroll around 'The Rocks' market. We boarded the ship about 2 p.m. and headed straight to the 'Windjammer' for a late lunch. The variety and abundance of food was an eye opener for Evan but our hunger was soon abated. We took our small bags to our cabin and then went to explore the ship, did the emergency drill, unpacked a bit and then went up on the top deck to watch the ship embark from the wharf. The weather was overcast and fine rain started to fall. We then went off for our evening meal. The evening show featured Amber Lawrence and she brought her niece and nephew on stage to do a segment with her.

Monday was cloudy and the seas choppy, Evan succumbed to the conditions but after taking some seasick pills, he had a lie-down and recovered in the afternoon. I was able to see Laurie Minson & Shellie, Felicity recording 'Sat. Night Live' and do some square dancing lessons. The evening show featured the Kirkpatrick Family, both Anne & David performing individually and together and they were joined on stage with Anne's son Jim and his partner Flora. There were a lot of Slim Dusty stories and references to his songs. After the show I went to see Luke O'Shea in the Centrum.

Tuesday the weather was fine and seas fairly calm. I went to square dance lessons and then Line dance lessons. There was a midday show with James Blundell and he had his son Briar on guitar with him, it was a little loud at times. During the day I also got to see 'Simply Bushed', 'Round Mountain Girls' who are all guys!, 'Upscale Duo' and 'Innocent Eve'. The evening show was to be Adam Harvey one of my favourites and I had to queue for about an hour before the show to try and get a good seat but it was worth it, Beccy Cole dropped in for a couple of songs and he introduced his wife Cathy to us and his daughter Leyla (15 yrs) later performed solely and also with Adam. Leyla is having classical music lessons and had a lovely voice, she and Adam did a rendition of 'The Prayer' which brought a standing ovation – it was wonderful.

Wed. saw us at Lifou and we took a tender boat ashore and had a browse around some local stalls, mainly food, and then went for a walk to the Notre Dame Church for a lovely scenic view and then wandered further round the island. Back on board the ship I went for a swim and could hear Rusty & Ayers performing. The evening show was Beccy Cole and at last Evan came along. Beccy had her mum Carole sing a few songs solo and join with Beccy in some. Her son Ricky featured on guitar. Adam Harvey also joined her for a couple of songs, it was a great show. Later I saw a bit of Buddy Goode perform.

Thurs. at Port Vila, there were lots of market stalls on the wharf so we did a bit of shopping. We had booked for an 'Off-road Buggy Ride'. Twelve people took part and we were driven in a people carrier through the township to a private property and we each choose a helmet to wear and then got into one of six buggies, in pairs, with the idea of changing drivers halfway. Evan was at the wheel and we proceeded to follow our guide along a very bumpy and dusty track hitting as many bumps as possible and going as fast as the terrain allowed. At the halfway mark I let Evan carry on driving as he was having such fun. The cows we passed didn't flinch at all the noise, so I guess that they were used to it. Back on board ship had a shower to get rid of the dust. Then I went back to do some more shopping at the market stalls, the locals were very friendly. The evening show was John Williamson and he also had his daughter Amy join him on stage. After the show went to see a bit of the 'Stomping Ivories, Innocent Eve' and Vaughan Jones.

Fri. – Noumea. We took a trip on the Hop on Hop off Bus and later had a look around the shops. The evening show was the 'McClymonts' and as usual didn't disappoint – very good. Also saw the 'Bushwackers' & 'Stomping Ivories' later.

Sat.- Lunch time show was Camille & Stue French for the first part and their son 'Sonny' joined them on stage and he was very popular with the audience, will no doubt see plenty of him in the future. The second half Catherine Britt took to the stage and Beccy Cole joined her from the audience for a song. The evening show was Lee & Tanya Kernaghan where they performed individually and together, Evan came along too. Lee got his wife Robyn to join him on stage. The show was very professional and Lee was not too loud. After the show I headed to the Colony Club to see the 'Stomping Ivories' again and Claire O'mara from the theatre backing band joined them, it was great.

Sunday- Cloudy, cool and the sea choppy. We had a look around the Ship's shops for bargains. Saw 'Indiella Duo' and the 'Bushwackers' perform. We packed our bags. The evening show featured all the artists who had appeared at the shows in the theatre and they sang one or two songs each including the 'family' members who had performed with them earlier in the week. Evan came to the show too and enjoyed it. It was a great show to finish off the cruise.

Mon. saw us back in Sydney and we then returned back to Adelaide to everyday life.

Len and Lorraine Wakefield Memorial Fund

Subject to certain conditions, the purpose of the fund is to assist younger talent with proven ability: a) in entering talent quests throughout South Australia, Mildura and Tamworth, b) by payment or part payment of professional tuition, and c) towards the cost of a musical instrument. The fund is administered by the APMC committee with expenditure limited to the interest from capital invested (plus raffles from time to time), with all payments made to the appropriate body. Annually an awardee is chosen by the Full Committee. Contributions to the fund, which may be made to the club treasurer at any time will be acknowledged in the club newsletter.

After Lorraine's passing the fund was renamed to include Lorraine's name. The selection procedure has had to be changed slightly as there are fewer talent contests held at present than in the past.
